RECIPE:

COLA & CARDAMOM BRAISED PORK SHOULDER

- 2 pounds pork shoulder, cut into 6 large chunks
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1 tablespoon of ground coriander and ground cardamom
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 onion and 1 carrot, chopped
- 2 celery stalks, chopped
- 5 cloves garlic, roughly chopped
- 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1 cup of beef stock or broth
- 4 cups cola (made with sugar, not corn syrup)
- 4 green or black cardamom pods, crushed
- 1 bunch cilantro stems, tied with string
- 1 thumb size piece of ginger
- 2 bay leaves, sliced

Directions:

Preheat the oven to 325 degrees F. Pat the pork dry with paper towels and season with salt, pepper, cardamom and coriander. In a large Dutch oven, heat the olive oil over medium-high heat, and working in batches brown the meat on all sides until a golden crust forms. Transfer the pork to a plate. Add the onion, celery, and carrot to the pan, and sweat until softened – 5 to 7 minutes. Add the garlic and sweat another 2 minutes. Return the pork to the Dutch oven, then stir in the beef stock, cola, cilantro stems, ginger, cardamom pods and bay leaves. Add water if liquid does not come up to the top of the pork. Do not cover the pork with liquid. Cover the pan and place it in the oven to braise until the meat is fork tender, about 3 hours. Taste and season with more salt and pepper, if needed. Transfer to a serving platter and serve.

This dish is very versatile – great served over rice or egg noodles, made into simple tacos, or on a sandwich.
