

SHOPPE OBJECT

FEBRUARY 1-3, 2020

MAKE WAVES

As the big movements in retail seem to be heading in diametrically opposed directions – either desperately seeking bargain pricing or trumping up conspicuous consumption – there is a smaller, slower, and infinitely more sustainable movement afoot. This one seeks authenticity, experience, engagement, and a focus on what lasts, what matters. It's about making waves, going against the grain, and changing the narrative. It requires some risk, and it's growing. All of us on our small team at Shoppe Object are overwhelmed by gratitude for the courage, creativity, foresight and fierce spirit of all of the brands, merchants and tastemakers who took a chance on our fledgling show, and who helped to turn it, virtually overnight, into a force of change, and a manifestation of shared enthusiasm.

Hayman's work is found in numerous private and public collections including the Museum of Modern Art Library, The Boston Athenaeum, and The New York Public Library. Meet Jefferson, and see more of his work, at his installation on the show floor.

ARTIST

The poetry of winter and the vastness of water as matter that connects us all led us to select works by artist Jefferson Hayman for Shoppe Object 4.0. Hayman is a New York artist who explores themes of nostalgia, common symbols, and memory via a quiet minimalism that inspires introspection. Each photograph is handcrafted as a silver gelatin, platinum, or pigment print, capturing both a tonality of early photographic processes and refined, modernist interplay of light and shadow, then paired with antique or artist-made frames. The results are imbued with a unique story, and a charming sense of personality.

JUST CAN'T GET ENOUGH: BLUE

Blue is harmony, faithfulness, confidence, infinity, imagination, cool, and sometimes sad. Of angels and soldiers, Mr. Popular, righteous, intelligent, calm and protective. The color of the year feels so fresh again; blue is the celestial and the sound.

FRAGMENTARY BLUE

Why make so much of fragmentary blue
In here and there a bird, or butterfly,
Or flower, or wearing-stone, or open eye,
When heaven presents in sheets the solid hue?

Since earth is earth, perhaps, not heaven (as yet)—
Though some savants make earth include the sky;
And blue so far above us comes so high,
It only gives our wish for blue a whet.

Robert Frost, 1923

“Blue has no dimensions, it is beyond dimensions, whereas the other colors are not ... All colors arouse specific associative ideas, psychologically material or tangible, while blue suggests at most the sea and sky, and they, after all, are in actual, visible nature what is most abstract.”

– Yves Klein

RECYCLE

In our continued effort to be conscious of the imprint we leave on Mother Earth, we urge you to:

- Recycle your metal badge tabs either onsite near registration or at home.
- Bring your reusable water bottles every day to take advantage of our free onsite water stations.

RECIPE

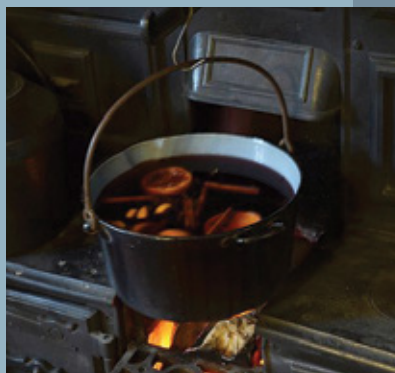

Here's Monterone's recipe for a crowd-pleasing winter cider:

Ingredients:

- 1 gallon of apple cider
- 1/4 cup of light brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon of all spice
- a pinch of grated nutmeg
- 2 teaspoons whole cloves
- 1 orange
- cinnamon stick for garnish
- 2 cups of bourbon (optional, of course!)

Directions:

1. In a large pot over medium heat, add cider and stir in brown sugar, allspice and nutmeg.
2. Stir until sugar dissolves and bring to a low boil.
3. Stick the pointy ends of the cloves into the orange so that just the buds of the cloves are visible. The entire orange should be covered with the cloves. Add the spiked orange to cider and reduce heat to simmer. Cover and continue cooking for 20 minutes.
4. Add bourbon to taste.
5. Serve in warm mugs with a cinnamon stick garnish.

YOUR TAROT READING FOR SHOPPE OBJECT

Mind
7 of Wands

CHALLENGE, COMPETITION, PROTECTION & PERSEVERANCE

Here you are: amongst the finest brands and retailers from the home and gift design world at Shoppe Object. Wands represent action, the use of energy, passion and fire. Sevens here symbolize your big accomplishment – and being here is an accomplishment in itself, but perhaps there is an underlying feeling of being daunted by your neighbors, peers or outside forces. Handle the competition that accompanies success by drawing upon self-confidence; now's the time to call upon balance, wisdom, power, and initiation.

Body
3 of Cups

CELEBRATION, FRIENDSHIP, CREATIVITY & COLLABORATION

Cups represent the element of water, and also are symbols of love, emotions, dreams, psychic visions or experiences, and our conscious and unconscious desires. Think of this three as the Three Graces – sharing pleasure, having fun with others, and feeling a sense of belonging in a group. Take it as easy as you can, be gentle with and nourish your body to fully engage in the lovely new opportunities, both personal and professional that can blossom from your experience here.

Spirit
3 of Discs/Pentacles

TEAMWORK, COLLABORATION, LEARNING & IMPLEMENTATION

You've got your eye on the prize so it's no wonder that Pentacles, also thought of as discs or coins appear here. They represent Earth and tangible things found on the physical plane, money, the physical things that surround us and our bodies, and the source of creation and procreation. This is a group card, and threes symbolize group creative efforts. To fully realize your potential at Shoppe Object, work hard and put your best effort forth, be open to forever learning and be ready to implement success strategies for you and your business to realize your goals.
